CELL-LEVEL DATA ACCESS CONTROL USING USER-DEFINED FUNCTIONS

ABSTRACT OF THE DISCLOSURE

Access control at the cell level is provided by the use of mask functions. Original queries are modified to contain mask functions for those cells which controlled access in accordance with an access policy is desired. In addition, filter functions are included to eliminate rows according to the access policy

PA 3118742 v1